INDULGENCES

FOR THE YEAR OF THE EUCHARIST:

Cardinal James Francis Stafford, Major Penitentiary of the Apostolic Penitentiary, has issued a decree dated December 25, 2004 concerning the granting of two plenary indulgences during the Year of the Eucharist for the following occasions:

- When the faithful participate attentively and piously in a sacred function or a devotional exercise undertaken in honor of the Blessed Sacrament, solemnly exposed or conserved in the tabernacle, when clerics, religious or others pray Evening Prayer and Night Prayer from the Liturgy of the Hours before the Blessed Sacrament, even when it is reserved in the tabernacle.

The decree states that the plenary indulgences are received by the faithful under the usual conditions (sacramental confession, freedom from all attachments to sin, reception of Holy Communion, prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Recognizing that there are many who because of sickness or other just cause cannot make it to a church to venerate the Blessed Sacrament, these people can be granted a plenary indulgence if they "make this visit to the Blessed Sacrament spiritually and with the heart's desire...and recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a pious invocation to Jesus in the Sacrament."
